

WINE STORY

The Langhe area of Piedmont is often associated with Nebbiolo grapes, but in the past many of the vineyards were also planted to Barbera. Vietti's "Trevie" Barbera d'Alba (formally known as Tre Vigne) continues the wineries long history by sourcing the grapes for this wine from vineyards in Castiglione Falletto, Monforte d'Alba, and La Morra. The wine is aged for one year using a combination of stainless steel tanks, large oak casks, and barriques. Matured in the bottle for another four months.
